

Narrator (Zechariah)	Vision 1 During the night I had a vision, and there before me was a man mounted on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses. I asked,
Zechariah	What are these, my lord?
Narrator	The angel who was talking with me answered,
Angel	I will show you what they are.
Narrator	Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained,
Man amongst the trees	They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.
Narrator	And they reported to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees,
Horses	We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.
Narrator	Then the angel of the LORD said,
Angel	LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?
Narrator	So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. Then the angel who was speaking to me said,
Angel	Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says:
God	I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they went too far with the punishment. I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem. My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.

Narrator	Vision 2 Then I looked up, and there before me were four horns. I asked the angel who was speaking to me,
Zechariah	What are these?
Narrator	He answered me,
Angel	These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.

Narrator	Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. I asked,
Zechariah	What are these coming to do?
Narrator	He answered,
Angel	These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise their head, but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people.

Narrator	Vision 3 Then I looked up, and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand. I asked,
Zechariah	Where are you going?
Narrator	He answered me,
Man with the measuring line	To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.
Narrator	While the angel who was speaking to me was leaving, another angel came to meet him and said to him:
Second angel	Run, tell that young man,
God	Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of people and animals in it. And I myself will be a wall of fire around it, and I will be its glory within. Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north, for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven.

Zechariah (Speaking for God)	Zechariah's message Come, Zion! Escape, you who live in Daughter Babylon! For this is what the LORD Almighty says: "After the Glorious One has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye— I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them. Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me." "Shout and be glad, Daughter Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you," declares the LORD. "Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you. The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem. Be still before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling."

For this is what the LORD Almighty says: "After the Glorious One has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye— I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them. Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me." "Shout and be glad, Daughter Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you," declares the LORD. "Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you. The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem. Be still before the LORD, all mankind, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling."

Narrator (Zechariah)	Vision 1 During the night I had a vision, and there before me was a man mounted on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses. I asked,
Zechariah	What are these, my lord?
Narrator	The angel who was talking with me answered,
Angel	I will show you what they are.
Narrator	Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained,
Man amongst the trees	They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.
Narrator	And they reported to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees,
Horses	We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.
Narrator	Then the angel of the LORD said,
Angel	LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?
Narrator	So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me. Then the angel who was speaking to me said,
Angel	Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says:
God	I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they went too far with the punishment. I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem. My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.

Narrator	Vision 2 Then I looked up, and there before me were four horns. I asked the angel who was speaking to me,
Zechariah	What are these?
Narrator	He answered me,
Angel	These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.

Narrator	Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. I asked,
Zechariah	What are these coming to do?
Narrator	He answered,
Angel	These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise their head, but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people.

Narrator	Vision 3 Then I looked up, and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand. I asked,
Zechariah	Where are you going?
Narrator	He answered me,
Man with the measuring line	To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.
Narrator	While the angel who was speaking to me was leaving, another angel came to meet him and said to him:
Second angel	Run, tell that young man,
God	Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of people and animals in it. And I myself will be a wall of fire around it, and I will be its glory within. Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north, for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven.
